

March 20, 2023

Dear Bubby and Zaidy,

It's my favorite time of the year again! The Torah School's annual Grandparents' Day is coming up on May 5th, and I can't wait to see you at my school. You'll meet my friends and amazing teachers, rabbeim, and moros. Even more exciting, they'll get to meet you. They've probably been wondering where a great kid like me comes from – now they'll know! J

This year's Grandparents' Day is extra special because it's Rabbi Charner's last year as Headmaster. Rabbi Charner has been the Headmaster of the Torah School forever! Well, really, for 30 years, but that's very close to forever.

He's the reason why the Torah School is so terrific! We don't "just" learn Judaic and secular subjects. We also learn to love Torah and mitzvos, to have good middos, and to do chessed. That's because of Rabbi Charner!

I know you'll appreciate that because those are some of the lessons I learn from you, too. (And my parents, but don't tell them I'm admitting it.)

Even though Rabbi Charner won't be here next year, our new principal, Rabbi Lichtenstein, will continue the fabulous Torah School programs. You'll get to meet him, too, on Grandparents' Day! He's been at the Torah School for over ten years, so we all know him, and he knows the school and us.

I hope you can make it on May 5th so we can spend the morning with each other. There will be fun activities and we'll take a professional picture together. You'll get to see my teachers in action and see why I love Rabbi Charner and the Torah School so much! I can't wait!

Miss you tons! Xoxoxoxoxo

Love,

Your favorite grandchild (Right?)

P.S. The Torah School is the best school ever, and the teachers make learning interesting, exciting, and fun. Can you help me continue to learn by please supporting the school? You can even donate in my honor! Thanks!

Can't wait to see everyone!

Yossie Charner
Director of Development

Rabbi Yitzchak Charner
Headmaster

Rabbi Shmuel Lichtenstein
Incoming Headmaster

Julie Malka
Secular Studies Principal

Rabbi Yossie Charner
Director of Development

Becky Langer
PTA President

Torah School of Greater Washington

2010 Linden Lane
Silver Spring, MD 20910

p 301.962.8003

e grandparents@tsgw.org

w tsgw.org/grandparents

